SAN MARTIN Corona No. 1 Churchill

ORIGIN: Peru		MAKER: Tabacalera del Oriente		FILLER: Peru		BINDER: Peru		WRAPPER: Peru		PRICE: $9.00
DIMENSIONS (6 3/4 X 48)		PANELIST # 1		PANELIST # 2		PANELIST # 3		PANELIST # 4
AESTHETICS		An awesome-looking walnut-colored cigar; some wrinkling in the wrapper.		An elegant cigar size, but the wrapper is fairly dull and not too oily.		A long, light-colored, gritty-looking cigar with some noticeable veins.		This very pretty cigar has a luscious, caramel-colored, vein-free wrapper.
CONSTRUCTION		Despite the inconsistent rolls and soft spots, all samples draw excellently, and burn razor-straight.		The roll has a nice feel: not too soft or overly filled. The draw is perfect; the ash is a solid, whitish-gray.		A dense, tightly rolled stick, it burns and draws well, with a solid white ash; gets some softness as it burns.		It feels a bit soft in the hand, but burns evenly with an easy draw. The ash goes from white to light gray.
FLAVOR AND STRENGTH		A slightly sweet/sour prelight taste develops into a mild, consistent flavor; the long finish has spicy notes.		Flavors are mild to medium-bodied, with no distinct or overpowering notes that were noticeable.		This one is mild-bodied with some notes of pepper and vanilla showing through. The finish is harsh.		Smooth and creamy, with hints of richness and some mild spice. The flavors build in body and complexity.
GENERAL COMMENTS		Construction problems detract from an otherwise enjoyable taste. At the right price, this one's worth a try. 8.7 VERY GOOD		This is a good cigar, but to my palate, the flavors didn't really go anywhere. Others may enjoy it. 8.1 GOOD		Overall, a plain Jane without much excitement. A good choice for doing yard work or household chores. 8.0 GOOD		I enjoyed this one's mostly medium-bodied profile. It paired up well with some good rum after dinner. 9.2 EXCELLENT

REVISTA SMOKE - FALL 2005

SAN MARTIN Robusto

ORIGIN: Peru MAKER: Tabacalera Del Oriente FILLER: Peru BINDER: Peru WRAPPER: Peru PRICE: $7.00

DIMENSIONS (5 X 50)	PANELIST # 1	PANELIST # 2	PANELIST # 3	PANELIST # 4
AESTHETICS	A good-looking cigar with a light, toothy, and oily wrapper.	Flawless, carmel wrapper that had a smooth, well-oiled texture.	Smooth and dry, but just oily enough to keep the leaf from feeling gritty.	Very nice looking. Not too dry but just dry enough. Somewhat toothy.
CONSTRUCTION	It is light in the hand, well rolled. The draw is easy though the burn is slightly uneven with messy ash.	The smoke is rich and billowed. The ash itself could have been firmer, but was fine just the same I think.	No soft spots and very light weight. Light smell. The burn was fairly even, a little too hot, though.	Very light, easy draw. Slightly uneven hot burn. The ash flaked slightly but otherwise held together fine.
FLAVOR AND STRENGTH	Flavors were mild, the tastes ranged from nutty to fruity the longer I smoked it. Nominal finish.	Incredibly mild. Carmel-like sweetness and not at all bitter with a sweet, almost apple-like aftertaste.	Mild smoke with a rich/sweet flavor. It tended to get a little dry and bitter towards the end.	A mild mocha flavor that was sweet and nutty, it petered out into something a little bitter towards the end.
GENERAL COMMENTS	An enjoyable cigar with lots of great flavor. Goes well with a glass of white wine, nothing too heavy. 9.2 EXCELLENT	Perfect for those who like a rich cigar that isn't at all bitter. But it did create one heck of mess with the ash. 9.2 EXCELLENT	I normally go for something heavier and larger, but good just the same, I would buy it if the price were right. 9.0 VERY GOOD	Wish the ending had been more on par with the rest of the cigar, but a top-notch stick otherwise. 9.2 EXCELLENT

REVISTA SMOKE WINTER 2006/2007

Peru — A nation with minimal tobacco tradition, but ideal growing conditions, Peru has begun to dabble in making cigars (like the San Martin Peruvian puros recently introduced in the U.S.). Among savvy cigar lovers, however, it has become the land of the Secret Ingredient — that smattering in the filler that adds a special “oomph” to some of their favorite premium brands. Peruvian filler has enhanced brands like the Fonseca Sun-Grown Cedar, Altadis’s Saint Luis Rey, Zino Platinum Crown Series, and recently, La Aurora 1495.

Bush y el rey Juan Carlos fuman puros peruanos

● La empresa peruana Tabacalera del Oriente, dedicada desde el 2001 a la producción de puros hechos a mano, ya ha impresionado con su calidad a importantes personajes.

Uno de los más entusiastas es el presidente Bush, quien recibió como regalo dos cajas de puros de Tabacalera en una visita oficial al Perú en marzo del 2002.

Bush aparentemente disfrutó esos puros ya que la Casa Blanca envió al gobierno peruano una carta agradeciendo por los cigarros. El

Rey disfrutó de los puros

rey Juan Carlos de España también disfrutó de este producto en la Cumbre Iberoamericana realizada en noviembre del 2001 en nuestro país. (Tomado de AGM News) ◀
