

CENTRAL RESERVE BANK OF PERU

WEEKLY REPORT

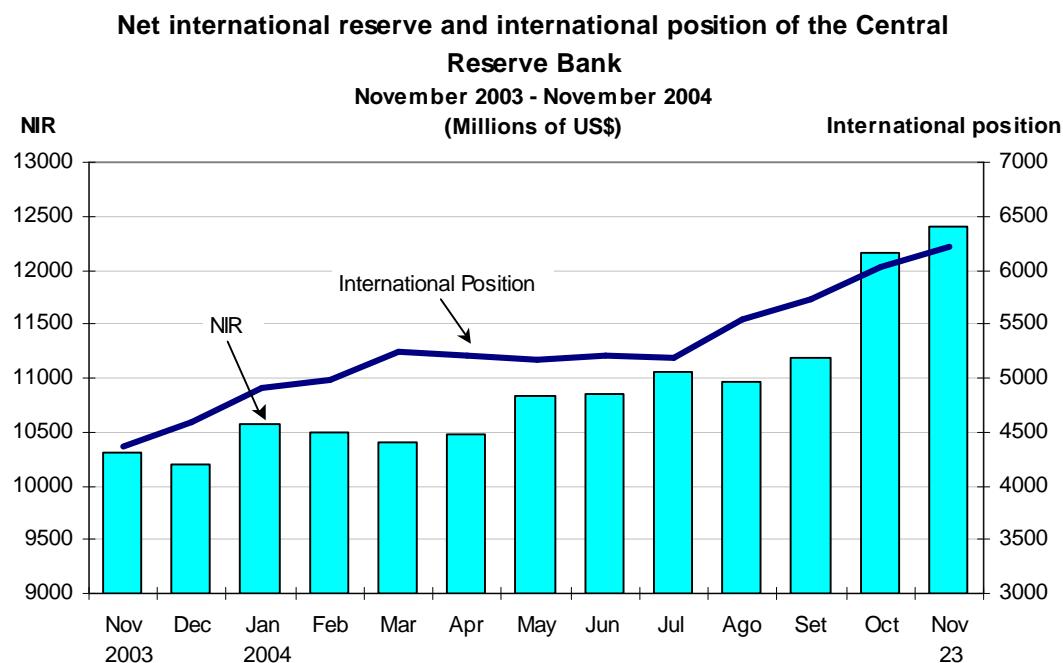

Nº 47 – November 26, 2004

Net international reserves at US$ 12 403 million

As of November 23, net international reserves (NIR) amounted to US$ 12 403 million, up US$ 238 million from end-October. This increase was mainly due to net foreign exchange purchases (US$ 199 million), higher financial system deposits (US$ 134 million) and investment yield (US$ 45 million) which were partially offset by foreign exchange sales to the public sector (US$ 40 million) and lower deposits of this sector (US$ 98 million).

Starting this year, NIRs have increased US$ 2 209 million, whereas the Central Bank's international position (US$ 6 216 million) grew by US$ 1 633 million.

Interbank interest rate at 3,02%

As of November 24, the average interbank interest rate in domestic currency was 3,02%, higher than October's (2,93%).

- Auctions of CDBCRP with a: i) 7-day maturity by S/. 75 million, on two occasions, at an average interest rate of 3,02% and 2,97%, respectively; ii) 7-month by S/. 40 million at 4,22%; iii) 1-year by S/. 24, S/. 30 and S/. 50 million at 4,82%, 4,84% and 4,85%, respectively and iv) 2-year by S/. 30 million at 6,04%.

- Foreign currency purchase over-the-counter mechanism by US$ 22,5 million at an average exchange rate of S/. 3,312 per dollar.
- Overnight deposits on November 18, 19, 22, 23 and 24 by S/. 27 S/. 31, S/. 85, S/. 95 and S/. 16 million, respectively.

Corporate prime interest rate at 3,79%

As of November 24, the 90-day average corporate prime interest rate in domestic currency raised from 3,65% in October to 3,79% and the rate in dollars from 2,40% to 2,52% following the international trend.

Exchange rate: S/. 3,314

Between November 17 and 24, the banking system exchange rate augmented from S/. 3,306 a S/. 3,314 due to higher US dollar demand by the commercials banks. Up to November 24, the balance of net forward sales rose by US$ 28 million with respect to October and the bank's exchange position increased US$ 7 million.

Monetary base as of November 22, 2004

The monetary base balance as of November 22 was S/. 8 002 million down 0,8% (S/. 65 million) from end-October. In average terms, the year on year rate of growth of the monetary base was 23,1% compared with 22,1% in October.

The main explanations for this result were net issue of CDBCRP (S/. 229 million), the maturity of temporary purchase of securities (S/. 165 million), the higher deposits of the public sector (S/. 156 million), the foreign exchange sales to the public sector (US$ 40 million or S/. 132 million) and the higher financial enterprises' overnight deposits (S/. 75 million) which were partially offset by foreign currency purchases over-the-counter mechanism (US$ 196 million or S/. 649 million).

Banking system monetary accounts: October, 2004

In October, liquidity in domestic currency increased 6,2% (S/. 1 370 million) to a balance of S/. 23 437 million. Credit to the private sector in the same currency augmented 3,4% (S/. 372 million) to S/. 11 236 million. However, in annual terms this aggregates grew by 23,4% and 12,3%, respectively.

Liquidity in foreign currency dropped 1,0% (US$ 100 million) to US$ 9 468 million, down 0,1% from a year ago. Credit to the private sector in the same currency fell 0,6% (US$ 59 million) to US$ 9 656 million (an annual decreased of 1,0%).

Financial system credit to the private sector

Over October 2004, financial system credit to the private sector increased 2,6% in soles and contracted 0,3% in dollars.

The annual rate of growth was 12,0% in soles and 2,4% in dollars.

FINANCIAL SYSTEM CREDIT TO THE PRIVATE SECTOR

In October the increase of soles-denominated credit (S/. 417 million) obeyed to the expansion of commercial banks credit (S/. 314 million) and in a lesser extent to microfinance institutions (S/. 77 million) which were partially offset by lower institutional investors credit (S/. 12 million) due to lower corporate bond issuing.

Through the past 12 months, credit expanded in S/. 1 728 million: S/. 536 million from microfinance institutions, S/. 483 million from Banco de la Nación, S/. 460 million from commercial banks and S/. 384 million from institutional investors; partially offset by lower leasing companies and others (S/. 134 million).

Primary fiscal deficit of S/. 62 million in October

As of October 2004, central government operations through last 12 months recorded a S/. 2 186 million primary surplus, compared with the S/. 557 million surplus over the period November 2002-October 2003. The latter was explained by the S/. 3 852 million (12%) increase of current revenue that exceeded the expansion of non-financial expenditure in S/. 2 190 million (7%). Cumulative interests (S/. 4 347 million) grew by 3%; hence, the overall deficit reached S/. 2 161 million.

In October, central government operations recorded a S/. 62 million overall deficit (smaller in S/. 387 million than the deficit in similar month from the past year). The primary deficit reached S/. 56 million (lower than the deficit of S/. 345 during October 2003) due to the increase in current revenue (16%), as opposed to a nil growth rate in non-financial expenditure. On the other hand, interest amounted to S/. 118 million, up 14% from a year ago.

October current revenue amounted to S/. 2 942 million, up 16% to last year level.

Tax revenue (S/. 2 570 million) increased 15% due to higher collection of Income Tax (20%), IGV (11%), duties (9%), other income (29%) and lower devolutions (6%), which were partially offset by lower excise taxes (2%). This expansion in government revenues is explained by a greater economic activity, improvements in terms of trade, higher investments and the impact of the financial transactions tax.

Non-tributary income (S/. 372 million) where higher in 24%, explained by higher oil and gas royalties in 171% due to the impact of Camisea.

Non-financial expenditure totaled S/. 2 894 million, similar to the number shown during October 2003, reflecting that the increase in current non-financial expenditures in S/. 134 million was compensated by lower capital expenditure S/. 133 million. The increase in current expenditure was explained by an increase in transfers and wages (13% and 9%, respectively) and were compensated by lower purchases of goods and services (7%).

External financing was positive S/. 2 684 million (US$ 808 million) because US$ 878 were received as disbursements that include issue of bonds by 650 million of euros and debt amortization by US$ 69 million. Meanwhile, internal financing was negative in S/. 2 709 million. S/. 231 million corresponding to issues of sovereign debt and S/. 33 million to debt amortization, whereas Public Treasury deposits grew by S/. 2 926 million.

Spread of Global bond 2012 at 2,51%

Between November 17 and 24, the spread of the Peruvian Global ten-year bond was maintained in its historic minimum of 2,51% and the sovereign bonds' EMBI+ of Peru diminished from 2,78% to 2,70%. In the week, Fitch improved the qualification of the long-term external debt in foreign currency of Peru from BB- to BB. Thus, Peru's sovereign rating is now two steps under the investment degree. The improvement is supported in the favorable perspectives of the fiscal accounts, the macroeconomic soundness, the growth of exports and the advances in the pensions' reform. The agency mentioned that the measures taken in the reform of pensions could serve as base for other public policies.

International markets

Between November 17 and 24, the gold quotation increased 1,0% to US$ 449 per troy ounce, responding to the continuous weakening of the dollar.

The copper quotation augmented 4,2% to US$ 1,48 per pound, reflecting the weakening of the dollar, the continuity in the workers' strike of El Abra mine (Chile) and the fall of the world inventories, that in the case of the London Metal Exchange (LME) diminished from 65 to 62 thousand MT.

In the period under analysis, the zinc quotation raised 2,7% to US$ 0,52 per pound influenced by the decrease in the LME inventories from 686 to 677 thousand MT and the weakness of the dollar that prompted the demand of basic metals by investment funds.

The WTI oil price increased 5,2% to US$ 49,3 per barrel due to the expectation that would not generate enough supply of heating oil to meet the winter's demand.

During the week of analysis, the US dollar depreciated 1,0% against the euro and 1,2% against the yen. The weakening tendency of the dollar was presented in a context of pessimism with respect to United States policies to brake the weakening of its currency, in spite of its current account deficit. These expectations were reaffirmed due to the absence of measures in the recent G-20 meeting of Finance ministers and Central Bank's governors. Besides, Alan Greenspan declared that the deficit in the current account would carry to a change in the investor's portfolio from assets in dollars to assets in other currencies.

Between November 17 and 24, the 3-month Libor interest rate rose from 2,33% to 2,38% and the yield of US Treasury bonds with a 10 year maturity from 4,13% to 4,20% due to Alan Greenspan's declarations and the greater fall to it was expected of the initial jobless insurance claims. In the future markets, the investors assign a 90% of probability to a raise of the federal funds rate by 25 bps (from 2,00% to 2,25%) in the FED meeting of December 14.

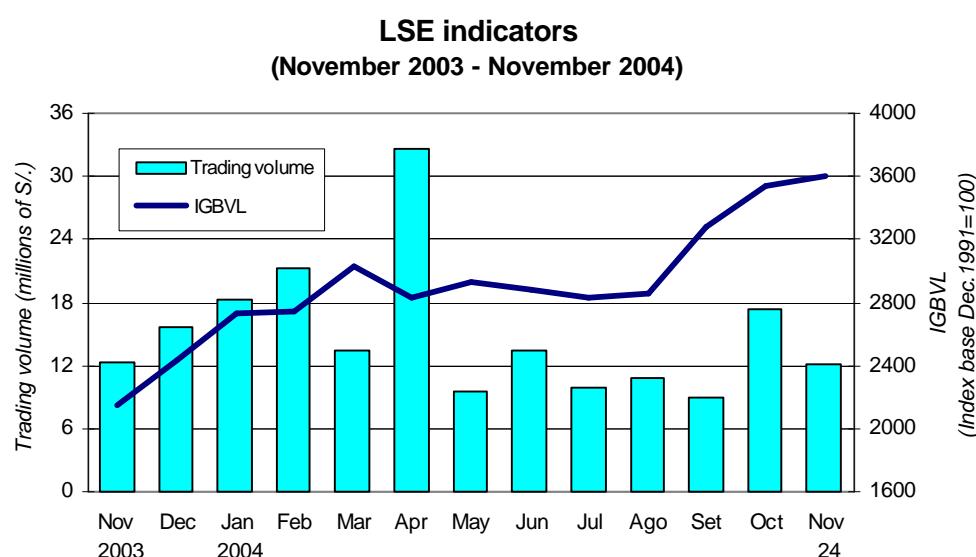

Lima Stock Exchange (LSE)

As of November 24, the LSE increased 1,5% and 1,2% in its General and Blue Chip Index, respectively. During the last week, a technical correction of some industrial actions was perceived as Aceros Arequipa and Alicorp after an outstanding performance in recent months. Southern Peru shares moved back (in spite of the copper price increment) due to investors' caution with respect to the fusion with Minera Mexico.

In the year, these indexes record cumulative increases of 47,8% and 48,5%, respectively.
