Corporate Prime Rate in Soles decreased to 5.20 Percent

In June 6 - 13, the daily average of the 90-day corporate prime rate in domestic currency decreased from 5.21 to 5.20 percent, while this rate in dollars increased from 6.16 to 6.20 percent.

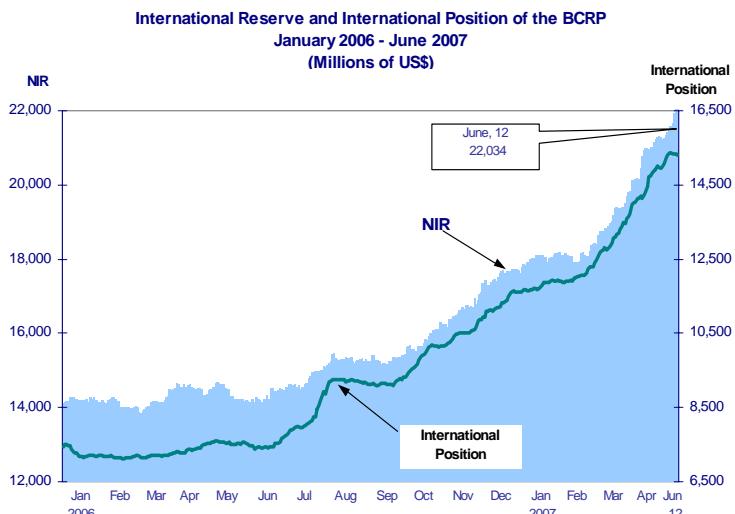

Monetary Operations

Between June 7 and 13, 2007, the Central Bank made the following monetary operations:

- i) auctions of BCRP Certificates of Deposit with 1-day, 3-day, 6-month, 12-month, 18-month, 2-year and 3-year maturities for a daily average of S/. 1,598 million, with average interest rates on these operations ranging between 4.53 and 5.58 percent; and ii) overnight deposits in domestic currency for a total of S/. 16 million.

International reserves: US$ 22,034 million on June 12

Net international reserves (NIRs) as of June 12 increased US$ 763 million relative to end May and amounted to US$ 22,034 million. This increase in the balance of NIRs was mainly due to higher deposits from the financial sector (US$ 576 million), to BCRP exchange operations (US$ 295 million) and to higher investment yield (US$ 2 million). This result was offset by public sector's lower deposits (US$ 63 million) and by lower prices for other securities (US$ 48 million).

As of June 12, the international position of the BCRP (US$ 15,316 million) had increased by US$ 249 million relative to end May.

Exchange Rate at S/. 3.172 per dollar

Between June 6 and 13, the average ask price of the interbank exchange rate increased from S/. 3.171 to S/. 3.172 per dollar, as a result of which the Nuevo Sol appreciated 0.1 percent this month. Between June 7 and 13, the Central Bank did not intervened in the exchange market at the Central Bank's Foreign Exchange Desk.

Interbank Ask- Exchange Rate and Net Purchases of Foreign Currency (March - June 2007)

Monetary base as of June 7, 2007

The balance of the monetary base as of June 7 (S/.13,919 million) increased 2.3 percent (S/. 309 million) with respect to the close of May. In average terms, the monetary base grew at an annual rate of 25.0 percent in this period (24.7 percent in May).

By sources, operations contributing to the expansion of the monetary base included purchases of foreign currency at the Central Bank's Front Desk (US$ 261 million, or S/. 828 million), public sector's lower deposits (S/. 132 million), bank's lower overnight deposits (S/. 94 million) and purchases of foreign currency by the public sector (US$ 24 million or S/. 76 million). On the other hand, the monetary base decreased due to net placements of BCRP Certificates of Deposits (S/. 863 million).

Liquidity and credit to the private sector as of May 22

In the last four weeks, liquidity in domestic currency increased 3.1 percent (S/. 1,112 million), reaching a balance of S/. 37,503 million (annual growth of 34.6 percent). Credit to the private sector in domestic currency grew 5.4 percent (S/. 1,468 million), thus reaching a balance of S/. 28,795 million (annual growth of 39 percent).

On the other hand, liquidity in foreign currency increased 3.5 percent (US$ 474 million), thus reaching a balance of US$ 14,038 million (annual growth of 18.1 percent). Credit to the private sector in foreign currency grew 1.3 percent (US$ 154 million), reaching a balance of US$ 12,352 million (annual growth of 6.2 percent).

International Markets

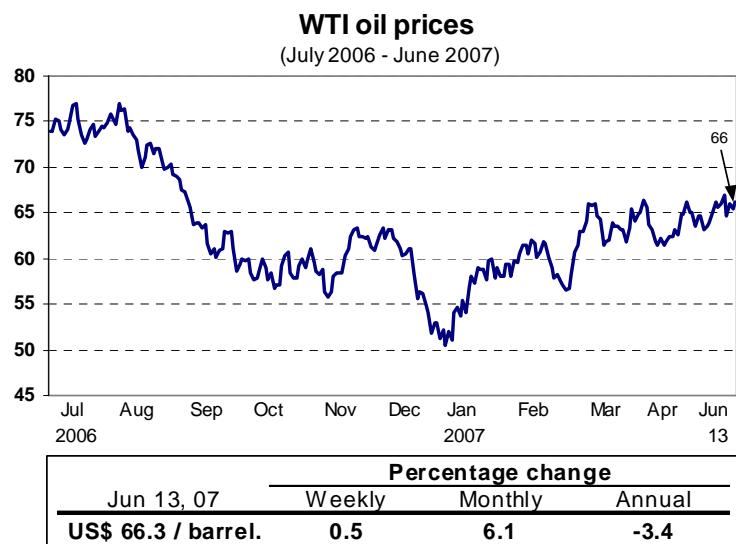

Country risk at 102 basis points

From June 6 to 13, the country risk indicator, measured by the EMBI+ Peru spread, decreased from 103 to 102 basis points, following the trend of spreads in the region, and was benefited by an improvement of the qualification of investment grade given to Colombian bonds by Standard & Poor's (which presented a new methodology), even the result was partially offset by an increase on the yields of the 10 year US Treasury Bonds.

Oil quotation grew to US$ 66.3 per barrel

Between June 9 and 13, the price of WTI oil grew 0.5 percent to US$ 66.3 per barrel. This evolution was associated with lower than expected inventories of crude in the US, stakeholders taking positions after the release of the EIA report, which increased its forecast of the oil demand for 2007, and the report of Saudi Aramco, the biggest public petroleum company in the world, on a cut of their petroleum exports to Asian refineries on July.

Between June 9 and 13, the price of gold fell 2.1 percent to US$ 652.1 per troy ounce, due to the appreciation of the dollar against the main currencies and an increase on the interest rates by the European Central Bank as well as the New Zealand Central Bank, which reduced the appeal of gold as an investment asset, due to the absence of fixed returns on this asset.

In the same period, the price of copper fell 4.0 percent to US$ 3.29 per pound. This evolution was associated with expectations of a lower demand of copper by China – lower imports of refined copper are expected on May-, the lower demand of the manufacture sector in the US –lower than expected growth in the orders of the fabrics- and the solution of labor conflict on the mine Radomiro Antic property of Codelco. However, this result was partially offset by a decrease on the inventories of the London Metal Exchange in 2.6 percent to 119,875 MT.

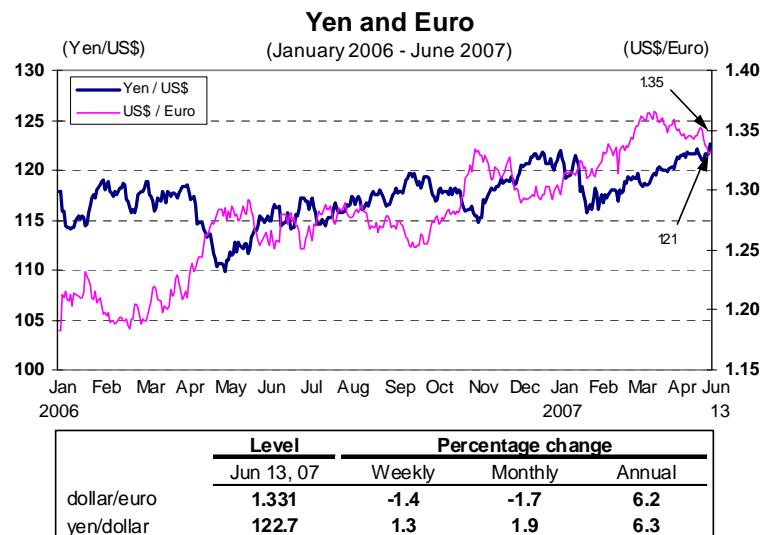

The price of zinc fell 1.9 percent to US$ 1.64 per pound in the week of analysis. This fall in the price of zinc was due to an increase in the inventories of the London Metal Exchange to 1.3 percent to 74,050 MT and higher speculation due to the political measures taken by the Chinese government to cool down the economy.

Dollar appreciated against the euro and the yen

In the same week, the dollar appreciated 1.4 percent against the euro and 0.3 percent against the yen. The dollar strengthened against the main currencies due to the expectation of that Federal Reserve keeps neutral in the short term after the positive indicators of industrial activity and employment, and the higher attractiveness of fixed rent assets denominated in dollars after which the bonds of long term yields reached levels has never seen since July, 2006.

On the other hand, the reduction in the trade deficit of April, contributed to a greater appreciation of dollar. Also, the unexpected fall in the industrial production in Germany, France and Italy generated higher pressures of depreciation on euro.

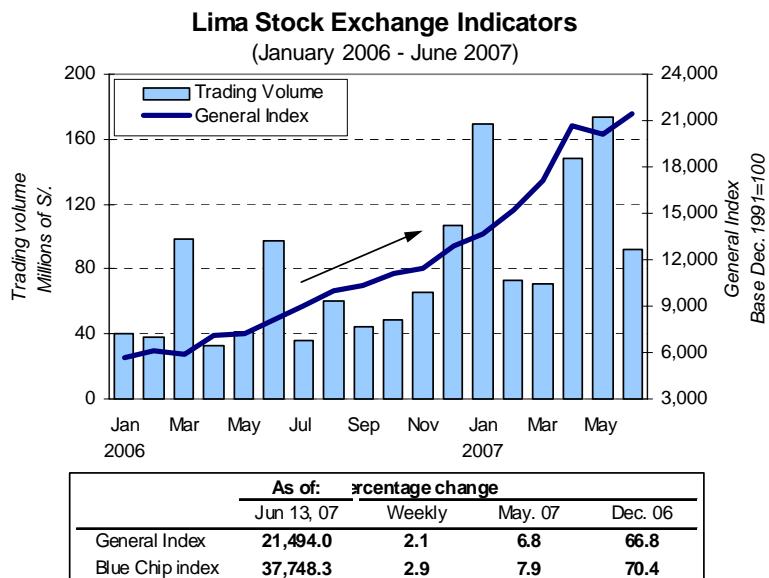

Yield on 10-year US Treasuries increased to 5.20 percent

Between Jun 6 and 13, the 3-month Libor remained unchanged at 5.36 percent, and the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bond increased from 4.97 to 5.20 percent due to the lower expectations of reduction in the interest rate for the Federal Reserve. Also, the rise in interest rates at global level and higher expectations than continues increasing, caused a positions liquidation in the market of fixed rent.

Lima Stock Exchange grew 6.8 percent as of Jun 13

As of Jun 13, the General and Blue Chip indices of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) grew 6.8 and 7.9 percent respectively, driven by the advance of stocks of the mining sector, due to the taking positions from investors after the higher expectations on corporative results of the second quarter in companies from the sector. Also, different sectors like agriculture showed greater dynamism, due to positive the economic grounds of the country. However, the improvement in the LSE was offset by fall in the basic metal price.

So far this year, the indices of the Lima Stock Exchange have grown 66.8 and 70.4 percent respectively.

 A partir del 5 de mayo de 2006, esta tasa se elevó a 5,25%.

 Las tasas de interés para los créditos de regulación monetaria en dólares serán a la tasa Libor a un mes más un punto porcentual.

* Desde el 29 de setiembre de 2006, el JP Morgan, de acuerdo a sus criterios de liquidez de mercado, ha incluido dentro de su EMBI+ PERÚ los bonos globales Peru 2025 y 2033. Al ser los spreads de dichos bonos cercanos a los 200 pbs, ello explica el aumento de cerca de 40 pbs en el EMBI+ PERÚ a partir del 29 de setiembre.
