Monetary operations

The Central Bank made the following operations between April 17 and 23: i) auctions of 1-day, 3-day, 7-day and 3-months BCRP Certificates of Deposit with Restricted Negotiation for a daily average of S/. 4,951.6 million. Net international reserves (NIRs), which increased by US$ 2,115 million compared to end March and by US$ 8,003 million compared to the close of 2007, amounted to US$ 35,691 million on April 22. This increase in the balance of NIRs during March is mainly explained by BCRP exchange operations (US$ 1,320 million), by higher deposits of the financial system (US$ 1,167 million), and by higher investment yield (US$ 11 million). This increase was offset by the lower valuation of other securities (US$ 147 million) and by lower public sector's higher deposits (US$ 10 million).

Moreover, the international position of the BCRP on April 22 was US$ 28,041 million, a sum US$ 978 million higher than the one observed at end March.

In this period, the Central bank intervened in the exchange market buying US$ 38 million.

INTERBANK ASK- EXCHANGE RATE AND NET PURCHASES OF FOREIGN CURRENCY
(February - April 2008)

Monetary base as of April 22, 2008

The balance of the monetary base as of April 22 (S/. 20,180 million) increased by 10.9 percent (S/. 1,983 million) compared to end March. By uses of the monetary base, this increases responds mainly to higher demand for deposits of the financial institutions in the Central Bank (S/. 1,733). On average terms, the monetary base grew at annual rate of 64.6 percent in this period (47.3 percent in March).

By sources, the operations that contributed most heavily to the growth of the monetary base were the purchases of foreign currency at the Central Bank's front desk (US$ 1,319 million or S/. 3,568 million), the maturities of BCRP Certificates of Deposit (S/. 2,298 million), banks' lower term deposits (S/. 797 million). Conversely, the monetary base shrank due to public sector's higher deposits (S/. 2,835 million), to net placements of BCRP Certificates of Deposit subject to Limited Negotiation (S/. 1,587 million), and to sales of dollars to the public sector (US$ 200 million or S/. 542 million).

resumen informativo

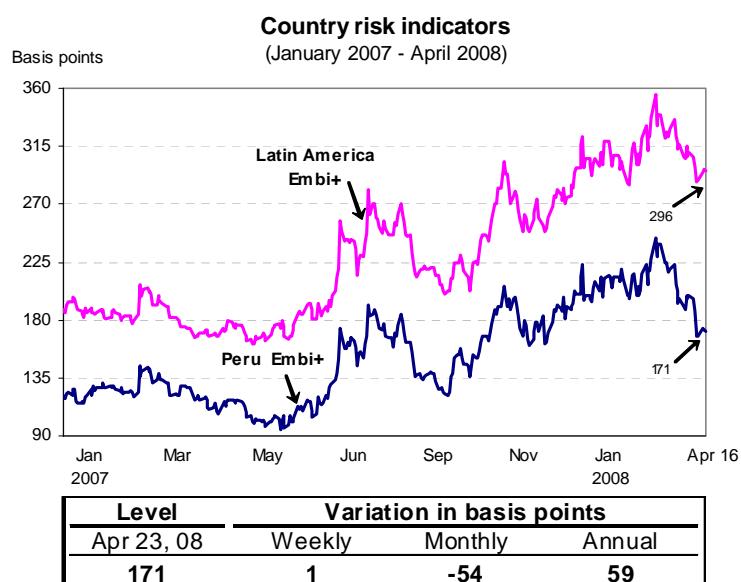

In March, the current revenues of the central government (S/. 5,263 million) increased by a real 7.1 percent compared to March 2007, in a context of high growth of economic activity and high prices of minerals. Tax revenues (S/. 4,551 million) increased 9.1 percent in real terms due to a higher collection of income tax (11.2 percent), and of the value added tax -IGV- (12.7 percent).

Moreover, non-financial expenditure net of transfers to other public entities (S/. 2,604 million) increased a real 3.7 percent, with current expenditure (S/. 2,216 million) accounting a decrease of 0.8 percent. By group of expenditure, spending in salaries and wages decreased 1.0 percent, while spending in goods and services decreased 0.7 percent, and transfers to the private sector decreased 0.2 percent. On the other hand, capital expenditure increased 39.4 percent, mainly due to the increase seen in gross capital formation (32.2 percent).

International markets

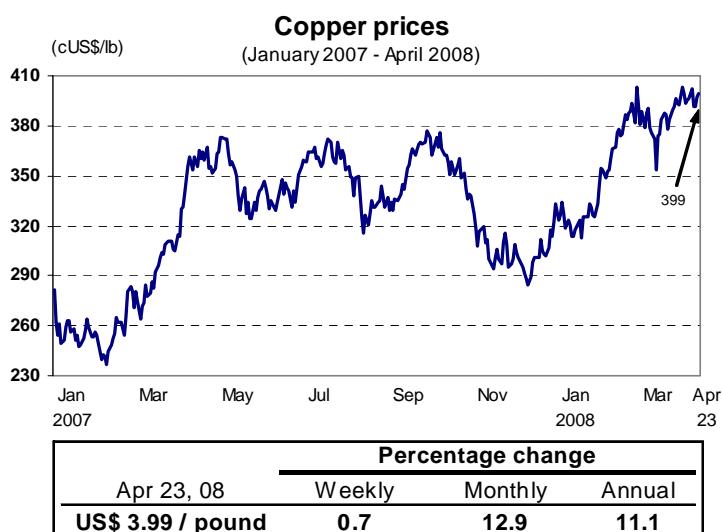

Country risk at 171 basis points

Between April 16 and 23, the country risk indicator –measured by the EMBI+ Perú spread– rose lightly from 170 to 171 basis points, while the spreads in the region increased 9 basis points (the EMBI+ Latin America increased from 287 to 296 basis points). This slight increase in the country risk of Peru was in the midst of a scenario where the publication of corporate results of U.S. companies were encouraging, however, caution about a likely recession in the U.S. economy remains latent.

Price of copper rose to US$ 3.99 per pound

Between April 16 and 23, the price of copper increased 0.7 percent to US$ 3.99 per pound. This evolution responds to the continuing concern over the copper production since the strike continues in the company Codelco of Chile, and to low levels of inventories in London Metal Exchange. However, the rebound of the dollar against the euro encouraged the profit taking limited further increase in the price of copper.

In the same period of analysis, the price of gold fell 4.8 percent to US$ 901.9 per troy ounce. This drop was influenced by the slight recovery of a dollar that prompted profit taking on the precious metal. But record oil prices increased the attractiveness of gold as a hedge against inflation and prevented a greater drop in price.

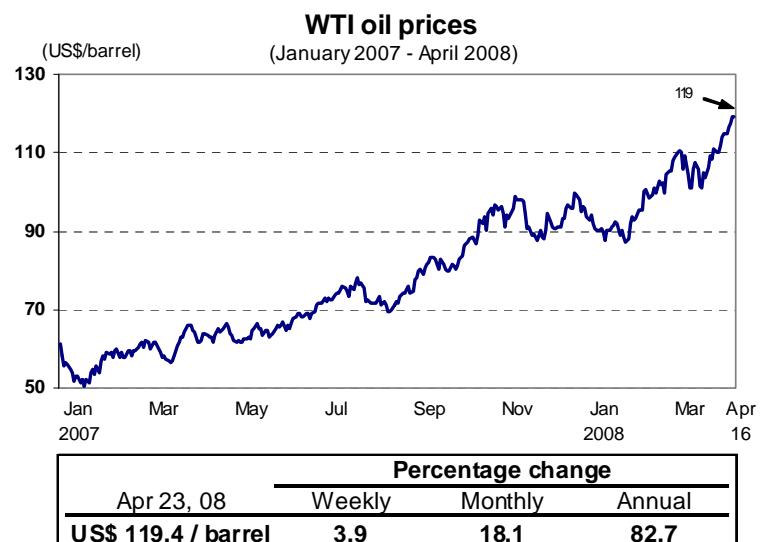

Percentage change
Apr 23, 08	Weekly	Monthly	Annual
US$ 901.9 / oz tr.	-4.8	-2.3	30.7

Between April 16 and 23, the price of zinc decreased 4.4 percent to US$ 0.99 per pound. The fall in the price of zinc was mainly due to higher inventories in global stock markets and concerns of lower demand from China, produced by the data the showed a fall in the metal imports.

Percentage change
Apr 23, 08	Weekly	Monthly	Annual
US$ 0.99 / pound	-4.4	-3.3	-40.0

The price of WTI oil rose 3.9 percent to a new record high of US$ 119.4 per barrel between April 9 and 16. The increase in the price of crude was influenced by concerns about supply in Nigeria and in the North Sea, as well as statements of the OPEC authorities that reiterate that is unnecessary an increase in its production quota. This result was partially offset by the progress of the dollar, fears of an economic slowdown in China and an increase in the availability of crude in the United States.

Percentage change
Apr 23, 08	Weekly	Monthly	Annual
US$ 119.4 / barrel	3.9	18.1	82.7

Dollar appreciated against the euro and yen

Between April 16 and 23, the dollar appreciated 0.4 percent against the euro and 1.5 against the yen. The strength of the dollar against the euro was due to a drop in manufacturing activity in the Eurozone starting to feel the impact of global slowdown. Also, comments from European Central Bank officials suggest that the weak dollar is affecting the growth of the Eurozone, influenced the fall in the euro. Regarding the yen, the dollar was strengthened by the continuing carry trade operations amid lower risk aversion by the increase in U.S. shares due to the earnings reported by an investment bank.

Yield on 10-year US Treasuries increased to 3.73 percent

Between April 16 and 23, the 3-month Libor increased from 2.73 to 2.92 percent, and the yield on the 10-year Treasury bond increased from 3.69 to 3.73 percent. In the case of Treasury bond, this increase in the yield was due to an increase in the stock market that reduced the attractiveness of Treasury securities, because the investors feel more confident of the outcomes of corporate earnings, which until now, have not showed negative surprises.

Lima Stock Exchange increased 1.5 percent as of April 23, 2008

The General and Blue Chip indices of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) rose 1.5 and 1.3 percent respectively as of April 23. However, during the week (between April 16 and 23), both indices closed with mixed results. Thus, the General index closed almost unchanged (+0.01 percent) and the Selective index fell in -0.21 percent, in the midst of profit taking, a decline in mining shares after the lower international prices of the zinc and favorable expectations on financial reports for the first quarter of firms listed on the local stock market.

Year-to-date, the General and the Blue Chip indices of the LSE have accumulated gains of 0.6 and 0.9 percent respectively.

 Desde el 29 de setiembre de 2006, el JP Morgan, de acuerdo a sus criterios de liquidez de mercado, ha incluido dentro de su EMBI+ PERÚ los bonos globales Peru 2025 y 2033. Al ser los spreads de dichos bonos cercanos a los 200 pbs, ello explica el aumento de cerca de 40 pbs en el EMBI+ PERÚ a partir del 29 de setiembre.
