MACROECONOMIC REPORT: Q3-2010

Domestic demand grew 15.1 percent in the third quarter

After having grown 8.4 percent in Q1 and 14.2 percent in Q2, domestic demand recorded a growth rate of 15.1 percent in Q3. The growth of private investment in this quarter (28.8 percent) is worth pointing out.

Maintaining the dynamism it started showing in the previous quarter, economic activity in Q3 grew 9.7 percent. This rate of growth reflects mainly the contribution of private expenditure in both consumption and investment.

External financing to the private sector in Q3: US$ 6,162 million

In Q3 the current account showed a negative result of US$ 846 million (2.2 percent of GDP). On the one hand, the higher international prices of the main commodities generated an increase of 14.3 percent in the terms of trade compared with the previous year, which favored exports and, at the same time, greater profits in firms with private shareholding. On the other hand, economic growth was coupled by a rise in imports, which recorded an increase of 46.7 percent in this period. Moreover, remittances in Q3 (US$ 635 million) were 4.0 percent higher than the ones recorded in Q3-2009 (US$ 611 million).

The financial account of the balance of payments amounted to US$ 6,670 million (17.3 percent of GDP), of which US$ 6,162 million was long term loans to the private sector. Among others, the latter included disbursements for a total of US$ 2,951 million for both the financial sector (US$ 1,593 million) and the non financial sector (US$ 1,358 million). Short term capitals amounted to US$ 546 million, mainly due to the reduction of deposits of the mining sector abroad.

Deficit of 1.3 percent of GDP in Q3- 2010

The operations of the non financial public sector generated an economic deficit of 1.3 percent of GDP. This deficit, which is 1.9 percentage points lower than the one recorded in the same period of last year, is mainly explained by the higher current revenues of the general government.

In Q3-2010, the current revenues of the general government amounted to 19.1 percent of GDP. This result, higher by 1.2 percentage points than the one observed in the same period last year, is explained by higher current revenues of the national government (up from 17.0 to 18.3 percent of GDP). By government levels, the current revenues of the national government accounted for 18.3

Exchange rate: US dollar traded at S/. 2.813

Between November 16 and 23, the average interbank ask price of the dollar rose from S/. 2.810 to S/. 2.813, which represented a depreciation of the nuevo sol of 0.11 percent. The BCRP did not intervene in the foreign exchange market in this period.

Between November 16 and 23, banks' balance of net forward purchases of foreign currency increased by US$ 137 million. So far this month, the balance of net forward purchases of FC has accumulated an increase of US$ 65 million.

resumen informativo

International reserves amount to US$ 45,983 million

On November 23, net international reserves (NIRs) amounted to US$ 45,983 million. This level of reserves is higher by US$ 3,028 million than the one recorded at the close of October.

This increase of NIRs was mainly due to public sector's higher deposits (US$ 2,656 million) –a result associated with the placement of Global and Sovereign Bonds in the international market–, banks' higher deposits (US$ 565 million), and swap operations (US$ 112 million). This increase was offset by the lower valuation of investments (US$ 316 million).

It is pointing out the increase in public sector deposits is mainly to the issuance of international bonds for US$ 2,500 million to prepay a debt and pay obligations in the next months, then these increase of RIN by this concept is temporary.

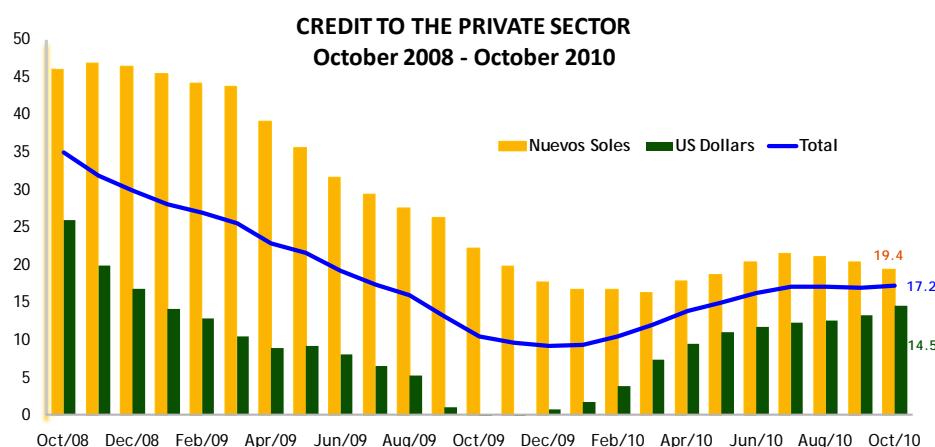

Moreover, the international exchange position of the BCRP at November 23 was US$ 32,507 million, a sum lower by US$ 202 million than the one registered at the close of October.

Total credit to the private sector grew 1.4 percent in October

Total liquidity in the private sector increased 1.4 percent (S/. 1,796 million) in October and thus accumulated an annual growth of 19.8 percent. Liquidity in soles increased 2.1 percent (S/. 1,587 million), while liquidity in dollars increased 0.4 percent (US$ 73 million).

Total credit to the private sector grew 1.4 percent in October (up S/. 1,649 million). Moreover, credit in soles grew 1.4 percent (S/. 949 million) and credit in dollars grew 1.3 percent (US$ 242 million). As a result of this, total credit to the private sector registers a growth rate of 17.2 percent in the last 12 month (17.0 percent in September).

resumen informativo

In October the non financial public sector recorded a deficit of S/. 87 million

The S/. 87 million deficit recorded by the non financial public sector in October 2010, which was S/. 549 million lower than the one observed in October 2009, is mainly explained by the general government's higher tax revenues.

The latter recorded a growth rate of 20.1 percent, mainly as a result of higher proceeds from import duties (37.2 percent), value added tax (21.4 percent), and income tax (20.0 percent) due to the higher prices of mineral exports and to increased economic activity.

The non financial expenditure of the general government registered a real growth of 11.2 percent as a result of increased expenditure on capital goods (22.7 percent). So far this year, the current revenue of the general government has grown 19.5 percent, while non financial revenue has grown 12.4 percent.

International Markets

Country risk at 169 basis points

Between November 16 and 23, the country risk indicator, measured by the EMBIG Peru spread, rose from 163 to 169 basis points.

The spread of the Latin American debt rose by 5 basis points (from 359 to 364 bps) in a context of increased risk aversion due to uncertainty about the financial support that will be provided to Ireland.

resumen informativo

Price of gold rose to US$ 1,373.5 per troy ounce

In the same period, the price of gold rose 1.8 percent to US$ 1,373.5 per troy ounce.

The upward evolution of the price of gold was associated with higher macroeconomic uncertainty after developments in Ireland, which led investors to seek gold as a hedge asset.

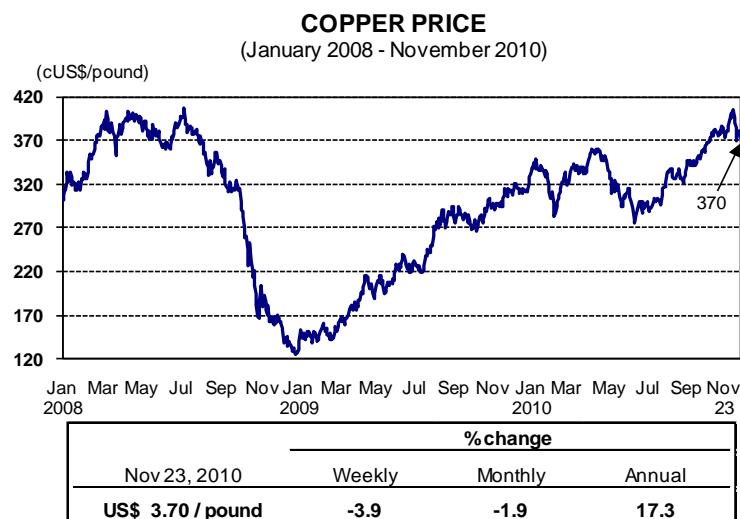

Between November 16 and 23, the price of copper fell 3.9 percent to US$ 3.70 a pound.

The fall in the price of copper was associated with China's lower demand (imports declined in October) and with higher uncertainty in Europe.

Moreover, in this period copper inventories in metal exchange markets increased by 1.4 percent to 546 thousand tons (a level of inventories equivalent to 11 days of demand).

Between November 16 and 23, the price of zinc fell 8.0 percent to US$ 0.94 per pound.

The drop in the price of zinc was associated with the rise of inventories at the London Metal Exchange (inventories increased 0.3 percent to 633 thousand tons). Furthermore, reports of the ILZSG informing that the mining production of zinc had increased by 10.7 percent between January and September due to higher production in China and Australia also contributed to this.

resumen informativo

The price of the barrel of WTI oil fell 2.0 percent to US$ 80.7 between November 16 and 23.

Factors influencing this decline in the price of oil included the greater availability of crude and gasoline inventories in the United States during the week, as well as concerns that the debt crisis in the Eurozone may hinder growth and reduce the demand for fuel.

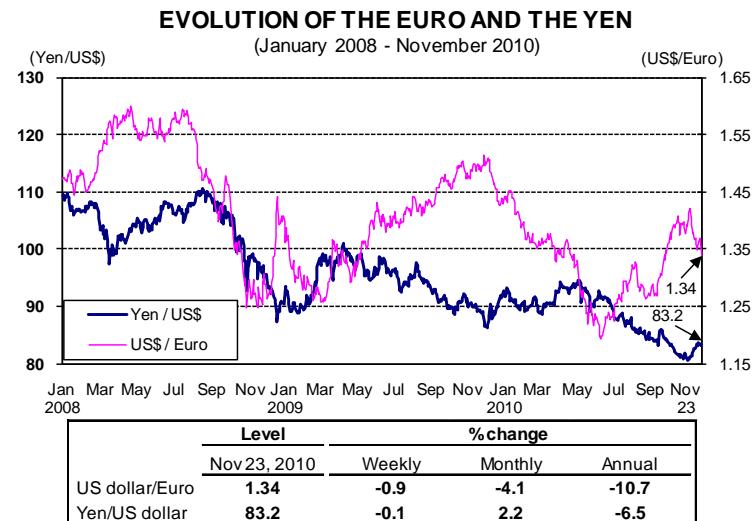

Dollar appreciated against the euro

Between November 16 and 23, the dollar appreciated 0.9 percent against the euro.

The dollar strengthened against the euro favored by reports showing mostly positive indicators of activity in the United States. Moreover, the European currency was also affected by fears about Ireland's situation.

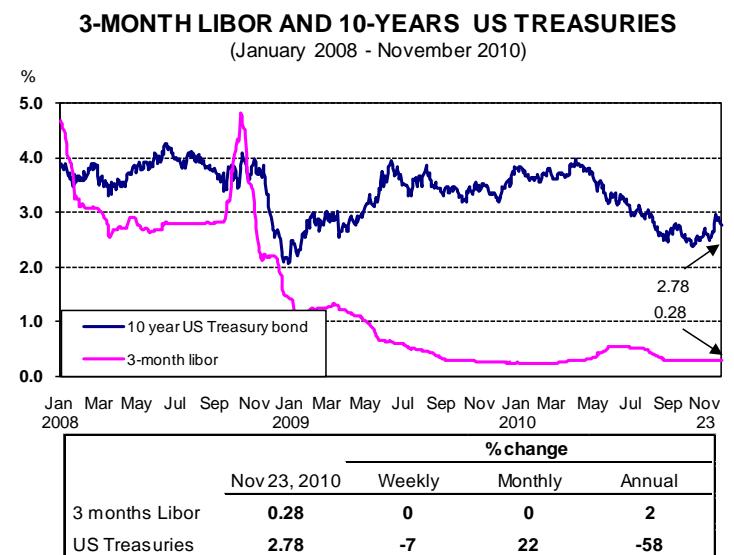

The dollar depreciated 0.1 percent against the yen.

Yield on 10-year US Treasuries declined to 2.78 percent

Between November 16 and 23, the 3-month Libor remained at 0.28 percent, while the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bond fell from 2.84 to 2.78 percent.

During the week of analysis, the yield on the US T-bond declined due to increased demand for safe assets as a result of fears about the debt crisis in the Eurozone.

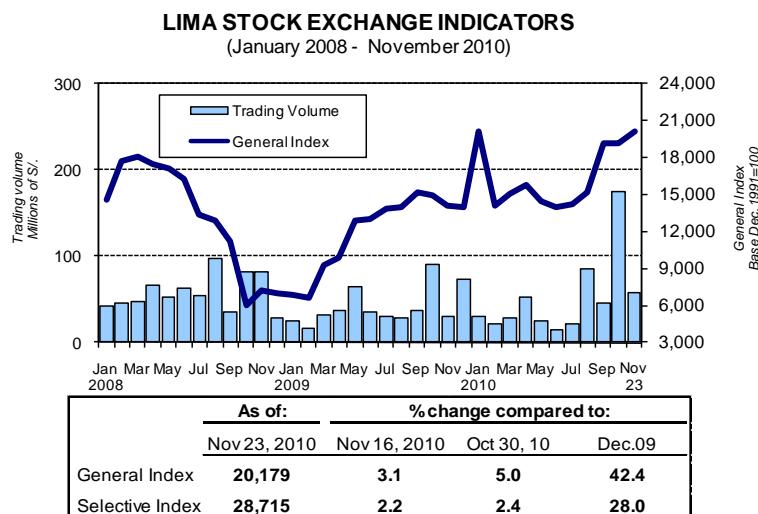

Annual profitability of the Lima Stock Exchange reached 42.4 percent

So far this month, as of November 23, the General Index and the Selective Index of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) have grown 3.1 and 2.2 percent, respectively.

Both indices rose during the week of analysis (5.0 and 2.4 percent, respectively), influenced by the stocks associated with domestic demand and some mining shares.

The indices of the LSE grew in line with the main stock markets in the region, which showed a favorable evolution as a result of positive data on the US economy.

So far this year, the General and the Selective Indices have accumulated gains of 42.4 percent and 28.0 percent, respectively.
