BALANCE OF NET FORWARD PURCHASES OF FOREIGN CURRENCY

(January 2008 - December 2010)

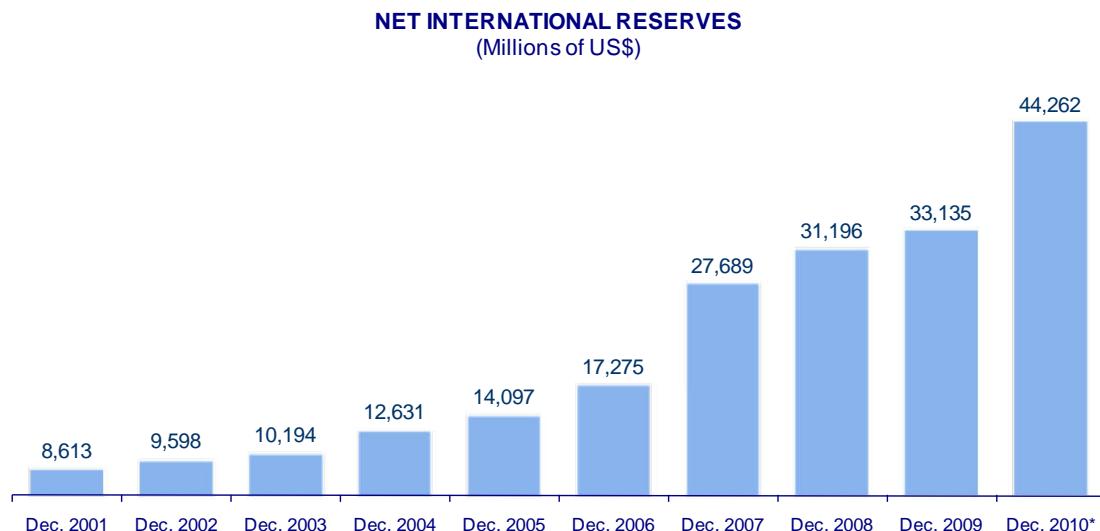

resumen informativo

International reserves amount to US$ 44,262 million

On December 21, net international reserves (NIRs) amounted to US$ 44,262 million. This level of reserves is US$ 158 million lower than the one recorded at end November.

The increase of NIRs observed so far this month resulted mainly from banks' higher deposits (up US$ 983 million). This was partially offset by public sector's lower deposits at the Central Bank (down US$ 735 million) associated with the issuance of bonds in the international market and payment of external debt, and from the lower valuation of investments (down US$ 86 million).

The exchange rate position of the BCRP at December 21 was US$ 32,261 million, a sum US$ 89 million lower than the one registered at the close of November.

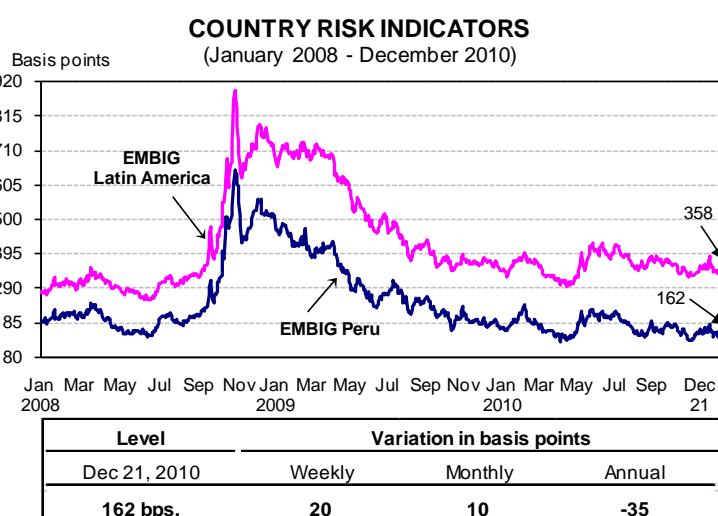

*As of December 21.

International Markets

Country risk at 162 basis points

Between December 14 and 21, the country risk indicator, measured by the EMBIG Peru spread, increased to 162 from 142 basis points.

resumen informativo

Price of gold decreased to US$ 1,385.4/troy ounce

In the same period, the price of gold fell 0.9 percent to US$ 1,385.4 per troy ounce.

The positive indicators of employment and activity in the United States encourage the increase of the dollar against the euro, and reduced the appeal of the precious metal as an investment asset.

Between December 14 and 21, the price of copper rose 1.6 percent to US$ 4.27 a pound.

The copper price has been driven by concerns of tight supply coming from Chile (accident at Collahuasi mine facilities) and on expectations of higher demand in China.

Between December 14 and 21, the price of zinc decreased 0.6 percent to US$ 1.04 per pound.

The price of zinc corrected on the downside in a context of rising inventories in London Metal Exchange by 6.5 percent to 699 thousand MT.

resumen informativo

The price of WTI oil rose 1.0 percent to US$ 89.2 per barrel between December 14 and 21.

This rise in oil prices came after expectations of increased demand due to cold weather in the northern hemisphere and the lower availability of crude and gasoline inventories in the US.

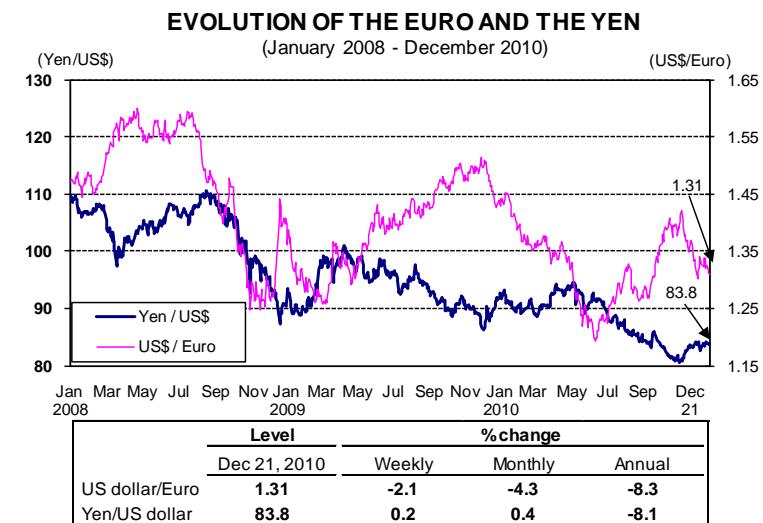

US dollar appreciated against the euro

Between December 14 and 21, the dollar appreciated 2.1 percent against the euro.

This negative trend of the euro against the US currency was explained mainly by the concerns of investors that the debt crisis will persist in Europe in 2011 after Moody's warned it might lower the sovereign rating of Portugal.

Moreover, the dollar appreciated 0.2 percent against the yen.

The yield on the 10-year US Treasury bonds fell to 3.31 percent

3-MONTH LIBOR AND 10-YEARS US TREASURIES

In the same period of analysis, the 3-month Libor remained at 0.30 percent, while the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bonds fell from 3.48 percent to 3.31 percent.

Increased purchase of bonds by the Federal Reserve and increased risk aversion resulting in greater demand for longer-term securities and triggered the drop on the US Treasury yields.

Annual profitability of the Lima Stock Exchange reached 58.4 percent

So far this month (at December 21), the General Index and the Selective Index of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) have grown 7.6 and 7.0 percent, respectively.

During the week (December 14-21), the General Index and the Selective Index rose 1.9 percent and 1.1 percent, respectively, lead by the mining sector stock, which were benefit by increased prices after concerns of shortages of some metals.

Year-to-date, the General and the Selective Indices of the LSE have accumulated gains of 58.4 percent and 38.3 percent, respectively.
