Exchange rate: S/. 2.777 per US dollar

Between February 22 and March 1, the average interbank ask price of the dollar remained at S/. 2.777. The Central Bank did not intervene in the foreign exchange market in this period.

Between February 22 and March 1, banks' balance of net forward purchases of foreign currency declined by US$ 189.7 million. In February the balance of net forward purchases of FC accumulated a decline of US$ 144 million.

International reserves amount to US$ 46,268 million

On February 28, net international reserves (NIRs) amounted to US$ 46,268 million. This level of reserves is higher by US$ 1,757 million than the one recorded at the close of January.

The increase of NIRs in February resulted mainly from banks' higher deposits (US$ 1,134 million), public sector's higher deposits (US$ 41 million), BCRP purchases of foreign currency (US$ 497 million), and the higher valuation of investments (US$ 92 million). This was partially offset by swap operations in dollars (US$ 62 million).

The exchange rate position of the BCRP on February 28 (US$ 33,399 million) was higher by US$ 586 million than the one recorded at the close of January.

Inflation rate in February: 0.38 percent

The rate of inflation in February was 0.38 percent in February, as a result of which inflation accumulated a rate of 2.23 percent in the last twelve months.

International Markets

Country risk at 151 basis points

In February the average country risk indicator, measured by the EMBIG Peru spread, remained at 146 basis points.

The spread of the Latin American debt rose by 5 basis points in this period in a context of tensions in the Middle East and North Africa and higher inflationary pressures in some regions.

On March 1, the country risk recorded 151 basis points.

Price of gold registered new record level

In February, the average price of gold increased 1.0 percent, moving from US$ 1,360.9 in January to US$ 1,374.9 per troy ounce.

This rise in the price of gold was associated with greater inflationary pressures in some regions, the increase of non commercial positions, and the depreciation of the dollar in financial markets.

On March 1 the price of gold rose to US$ 1,423.2 per troy ounce and recorded a new historical high.

In February, the average price of copper rose from US$ 4.34 in January to US$ 4.48/pound (3.2 percent).

The price of copper was driven up by expectations of higher global growth and by supply constraints in some producing countries. This rise in the price of copper intensified after data in China indicated higher imports of metals.

On March 1 the price of copper posted US$ 4.49 a pound.

resumen informativo

The average price of zinc recorded an increase of 3.8 percent in February, rising from US$ 1.08 in January to US$ 1.12 a pound.

Concerns about the fact that the increase in the supply might not suffice to meet the growing global demand, information about China's higher imports of this metal, and lower inventories at the London Metal Exchange (LME) accounted for the rise in the price of this basic metal.

The price of zinc at March 1 increased to US$ 1.13 a pound.

In February the average price of WTI oil fell 0.2 percent, from US$ 89.5 in January to US$ 89.4 per barrel.

Higher crude inventories in the United States and the drop of non commercial positions were the main factors that affected the evolution of the price of crude. However, the problems in the Middle East and in North Africa offset the fall in the price of crude.

On March 1 the price of WTI oil recorded US$ 99.6 per barrel.

US dollar depreciated on average against the euro and the yen in February

In February, the dollar depreciated on average 2.1 percent against the euro and 0.1 percent against the yen.

The evolution of the Eurozone currency against the dollar reflected expectations that the European Central Bank will raise its interest rates due to increased inflationary pressures.

On March 1 the euro was traded at US$ 1.38 US dollars and the dollar was traded at 81.8 yens.

resumen informativo

Yield on 10-year US Treasuries increased to 3.56 percent on average in February

In February, on average terms the 3-month Libor rose to 0.31 percent from 0.30 percent in January and the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bonds rose to 3.56 percent from 3.36 percent in January.

The yield on the US Treasuries rose as a result of favorable indicators of manufacturing activity and consumer confidence in the United States, which translated into a lower demand for longer term bonds.

On March 1 the 3-month Libor recorded 0.31 percent, while the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bonds registered 3.39 percent.

Lima Stock Exchange

In February the General Index and the Selective Index of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) fell 0.2 and 0.7 percent, respectively.

The evolution of the LSE indices in February was associated with the decline observed in foreign financial markets during the month and with lower-than-expected corporate results.

On March 1, the General Index fell 0.7 percent and the Selective Index fell 0.4 percent.

Year-to-date, the General Index and the Selective Index of the Lima Stock Exchange have accumulated losses of 2.9 percent and 3.7 percent, respectively.
