International Markets

Country risk at 219 basis points

Between October 18 and 25, the country risk indicator, measured by the EMBIG Peru spread, rose slightly from 218 to 219 basis points.

On the other hand, the debt spread of the Latin American region fell 7 basis points due to lower global risk aversion as a result of the better prospects for the situation in Europe.

Price of gold rose to US$ 1,685.0 per troy ounce

In the same period, the price of gold rose 2.9 percent to US$ 1,685.0 per troy ounce.

The price of gold registered an upward trend given continuous doubts that a definite solution might have been reached in terms of the Eurozone debt crisis. The depreciation of the dollar against the euro was another factor influencing the rise in the price of gold.

Between October 18 and 25, the price of copper rose 4.4 percent to US$ 3.44 a pound.

The price of this basic metal was driven by lower inventories in the main stock exchange markets, as well as by prospects of increased demand due to favorable data in the manufacturing sector of China, the world's major consumer of industrial metals.

resumen informativo

Between October 18 and 25, the price of zinc increased 0.3 percent to US$ 0.83 per pound.

Factors accounting for this rise in the price of zinc included China's increased demand and the drop of inventories at the London Metal Exchange.

The price of WTI oil rose 5.3 percent to US$ 93.0 per barrel between October 18 and 25.

This price rise was influenced by the decline of crude inventories in USA and by an uncertain political context in the Middle East and North Africa (a succession crisis in Saudi Arabia and political problems in Syria, Libya, and Tunisia).

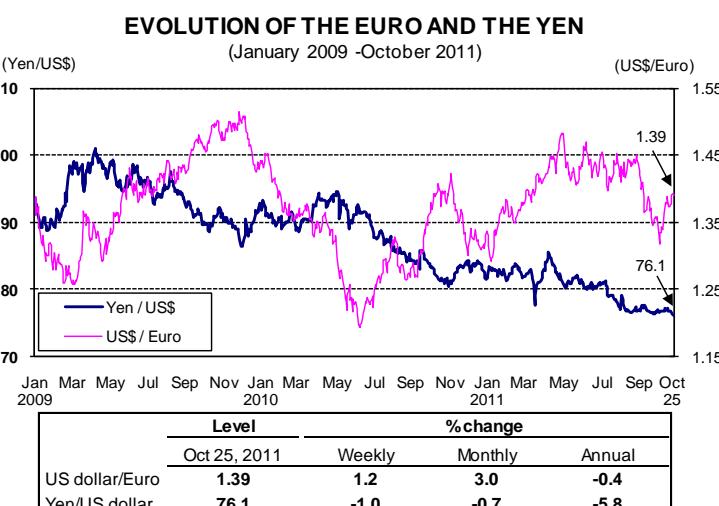

Dollar depreciated against the euro and the yen

Between October 18 and 25, the dollar depreciated 1.2 percent against the euro.

In the week of analysis, the euro continued strengthening against the dollar due to the better prospects for the solving of the Eurozone debt crisis in a new European Union summit.

Moreover, the dollar depreciated 1.0 percent against the yen.
