BALANCE OF NET FORWARD PURCHASES OF FOREIGN CURRENCY

(January 2009 - November 2011)

International reserves at US$ 48.86 billion

Net international reserves (NIRs) at November 22 amounted to US$ 48.86 billion. This level of reserves is US$ 165 million higher than the one recorded at the close of October.

The increase registered in NIRs so far this month resulted mainly from banks' increased deposits at the Central Bank (US$ 540 million), BCRP net purchases of foreign currency (US$ 369 million), and investment yield (US$ 3 million). This was partially offset by the lower valuation of investments (US$ 611 million) and by public sector's lower deposits at the Central Bank (US$ 129 million).

NET INTERNATIONAL RESERVES
(Millions of US$)

* As of 22.

The foreign exchange position of the BCRP at November 22 was US$ 32.03 billion. This amount is US$ 222 million lower than the one recorded at end October.

International Markets

Country risk at 231 basis points

Between November 15 and 22, the country risk indicator, measured by the EMBIG Peru spread, rose from 199 to 231 basis points.

On the other hand, the debt spread of the Latin American region rose 28 basis points in a context of higher global risk aversion associated with fears of contagion in Europe.

COUNTRY RISK INDICATORS
(January 2009 - November 2011)

Price of gold posted US$ 1,698.0 per troy ounce

In the same period, the price of gold dropped 4.6 percent to US$ 1,698.0 per troy ounce.

The price of gold closed showing new declines due to the appreciation of the dollar against the euro, which reduced the appeal of gold as a "substitute asset".

GOLD PRICE
(January 2009 - November 2011)

Between November 15 and 22, the price of copper fell 3.1 percent to US$ 3.36 a pound.

During the week, the price of copper was affected by prospects of a declining demand given uncertainty about the recovery of economic activity in Europe and the United States, as well as by the resumption of normal operations in Indonesian mines after an interruption of three months due to strikes.

COPPER PRICE
(January 2009 - November 2011)

In the same period, the price of zinc rose 1.2 percent to US$ 0.87 per pound.

The price of zinc corrected upwards due mainly to the reduction of inventories at the London Metal Exchange (inventories of zinc dropped 1.1 percent to 750 thousand tons).

ZINC PRICE
(January 2009 - November 2011)

In November 15-22, the price of WTI oil dropped 1.7 percent to US$ 97.7 per barrel.

The price of crude fell influenced by the downward revision of the oil demand projection for 2012 –EIA and OPEC projections–, as well as by expectations of a greater availability of crude due to Libya’s imminent return to the oil production market.

Dollar appreciated against the euro

Between November 15 and 22, the dollar appreciated 0.2 percent against the euro.

This behavior of the dollar was associated with uncertainty about the Eurozone debt crisis and with the deterioration of fiscal perspectives in the United States, which led investors to seek shelter in assets considered to be safer.

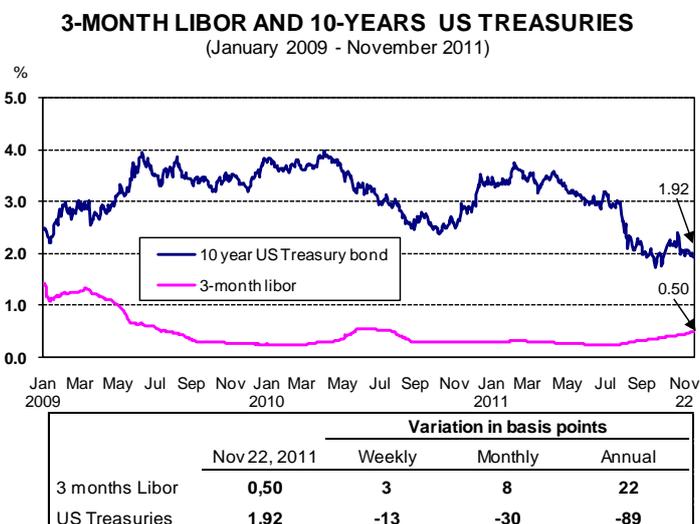

On the other hand, the dollar depreciated 0.1 percent against the yen.

Yield on 10-year US Treasuries at 1.92 percent

Between November 15 and 22, the 3-month Libor rose 3 basis points to 0.50 percent, while the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bond fell from 2.05 to 1.92 percent.

The decline in the yield on Treasury bonds was influenced by higher risk aversion, which translated into an increased demand for safer assets.

Lima Stock Exchange

So far this month, at November 22, the General Index and the Selective Index of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) have fallen 2.5 and 1.9 percent, respectively.

In the week of analysis (November 15-22), both indices showed a negative evolution, falling 1.2 and 0.7 percent, respectively, in line with the drop observed in the major stock exchange markets as a result of concerns about the debt crisis in Europe and the United States.
