Imports, which amounted to US$ 3.13 billion, were 17.5 percent higher than in October 2010 due to higher prices (11.4 percent) and higher volumes (5.5 percent). The volume increase was explained by a greater amount of imported consumer durables goods (19.9 percent) and capital goods excluding construction materials (25.7 percent). In the year, imports accumulated US$ 30.62 billion, 30.7 percent higher than last year.

The terms of trade in October 2011 fell 2.2 percent compared to their level in October 2012. The prices of exports grew 9.8 percent while the prices of imports grew 11.4 percent.

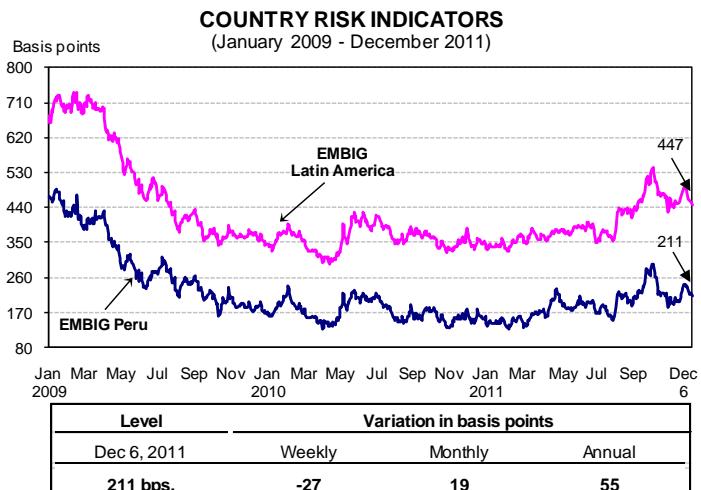

International Markets

Country risk at 211 basis points

On December 6 the EMBIG Peru recorded 211 basis points.

In November, the average country risk, measured by the EMBIG Peru spread, declined from 233 basis points in October to 214 basis points.

Likewise, the spread of the Latin American bonds fell 20 basis points due to the reduction of global risk aversion as a result of positive indicators of activity in the United States, as well as due to the provision of liquidity coordinated between the world's major central banks.

Price of gold reached US$ 1,710.4 per troy ounce

The price of gold on December 6 was US$ 1,710.4/troy ounce.

In November the price of gold rose 4.4 percent and reached an average level of US$ 1,739.5/troy ounce.

This upward trend observed during November was mainly associated with investors' increased non-commercial positions in a context of high liquidity. The rise in the price of gold. Was offset by the appreciation of the dollar against the euro.

On December 6 the price of copper registered US$ 3.52 a pound.

In November the average price of copper increased 2.8 percent to an average of US$ 3.43/pound.

The rise in the price of copper was influenced by the prospects of global economic recovery and the drop of inventories in the major stock exchange markets.

resumen informativo

The price of zinc on December 6 registered US$ 0.91/pound.

In November the average price of zinc rose 3.1 percent to US$ 0.87 a pound.

Factors contributing to this rise in the price of this basic metal included expectations of higher demand due to positive US data, favorable indicators in several regions, and supply constraints in some markets.

On December 6 the price of WTI oil posted US$ 101.3 per barrel.

The price of WTI oil rose 12.3 percent in November to an average price of US$ 97.1 a barrel.

The rise in the price of crude is explained by expectations of lower inventories in the United States (plans to reconnect a key pipeline to supply oil to global markets) and by concerns about supply due to geopolitical risks in the Middle East and North Africa.

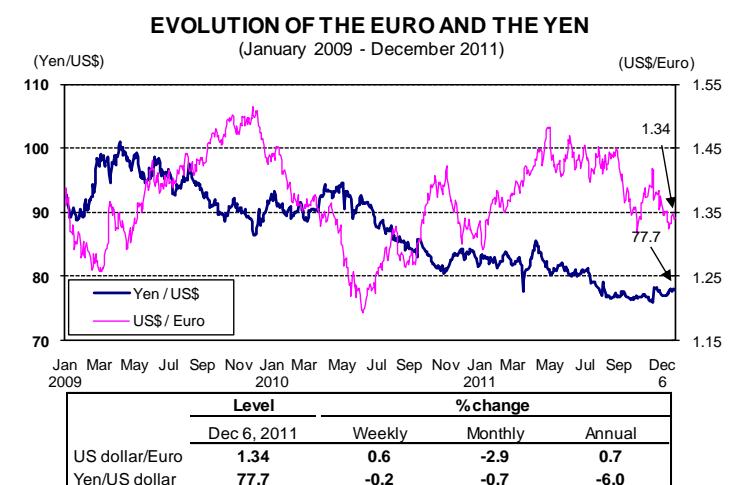

Dollar appreciated on average against the euro in November

In November the dollar appreciated 1.3 percent on average against the euro.

The strength of the US currency against the euro reflected positive US data of economic activity (employment and manufacture in November) as well as uncertainty about the Eurozone debt crisis.

The dollar also appreciated 1.1 percent against the yen.

The exchange rate on December 6 was US$ 1.34 per euro and 77.7 yen per US dollar.

resumen informativo

Yield on US Treasuries dropped on average to 1.99 percent in November

On average terms, the 3-month Libor rose 7 basis points in November, while the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bond dropped by 14 basis points to a rate of 1.99 percent.

Increased demand for safer assets in a context of uncertainty about the Eurozone debt crisis translated into a reduction in the yield on the US Treasury bonds.

3-MONTH LIBOR AND 10-YEAR US TREASURIES
(January 2009 - December 2011)

On December 6, the 3-month Libor registered 0.54 percent, while the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bond recorded 2.09 percent.

Lima Stock Exchange

In November, the General Index and the Selective Index of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) registered rises of 1.4 and 1.8 percent, respectively.

The results observed in these indices in the month were associated with the rise in the price of both basic and precious metals, as well as with the publication of positive indicators of activity in the United States.

LIMA STOCK EXCHANGE INDICATORS
(January 2009 - December 2011)

Year-to-date (at December 6), the indices of the LSE accumulate declines of 14.1 and 12.5 percent, respectively.
