On the other hand, the items that contributed the most to reduce inflation were tomatoes and onions (-0.05 percentage points each), and potatoes (-0.04 percentage points)

Monetary and foreign exchange operations

The monetary operations carried out by the Central Bank in September have been aimed at injecting liquidity into the market in the medium- and short-term to offset the withdrawal of liquidity as a result of foreign exchange operations and the payment of taxes. The Central Bank continued making its regular placements of BCRP-CDs three times a week and placed CDs for a total of S/. 1.3 billion with the purpose of contributing to increase liquidity in the secondary market of these instruments.

- Repos: In September, the BCRP placed overnight repos for a daily average of S/. 2.34 billion, as well as 1-week repos for a total of S/. 2.3 billion and 3-month repos for a total of S/. 600 million. The balance of these operations at September 30 was S/. 5.10 billion, with an average interest rate of 3.92 percent.
- FX swaps: FX swaps for a total of S/. 1.50 billion at an average interest rate of 3.81 percent have been placed. The balance of these operations at September 30 was S/. 4.7 billion, with an average interest rate of 4.11 percent.
- BCRP-CDs: 6-month BCRP-CDs for a total of S/. 500 million were placed at an average rate of 3.56 percent; 12-month BCRP-CDs for a total of S/. 400 million were placed at an average rate of 3.56 percent, and 18-month BCRP-CDs for a total of S/. 400 million were placed at an average rate of 3.68 percent.
- Term deposits: no term deposits were auctioned this month, but the maturities of 1-week deposits amounted to S/. 1.6 billion.
- Overnight deposits: Funds for a total of S/. 17.49 billion were deposited as overnight deposits, and the maturities of this type of deposits amounted to S/. 16.04 billion. The balance of overnight deposits at September 30 was S/. 2.29 billion.

resumen informativo

In September the Central Bank also made operations in the spot foreign exchange market to reduce volatility in the foreign exchange rate.

- CDR BCRP: The Central Bank placed CDR-BCRP for a total of US$ 1.16 billion (S/. 4.62 billion) at an average interest rate of 0.08 percent. The balance of these operations at September 30 was US$ 2.06 billion (S/. 5.95 billion).
- Interventions in the foreign exchange market: In September the BCRP sold FC for a total of US$ 526 million in the spot market at an average rate of S/. 2.89 per US dollar.

Exchange rate: S/. 2.89 per US dollar

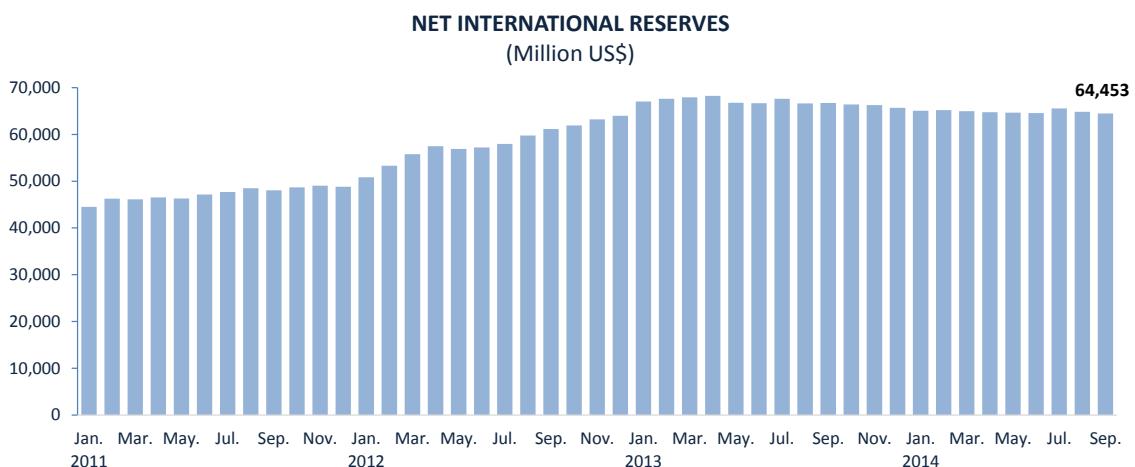

On September 30, the average selling price of the dollar in the interbank market was S/. 2.89 per dollar.

Since 2012 the Central Bank has purchased FC for a total of US$ 19.08 billion and sold FC for US$ 7.88 billion. In net terms, BCRP purchases of FC are US$ 11.21 billion higher than the sales of foreign currency.

International reserves amount to US$ 64.45 billion

International reserves at September 30, 2014, amounted to US$ 64.45 billion. On the same date, the foreign exchange position of the BCRP was US$ 40.08 billion.

Currency

Currency in circulation at September 30, 2014, showed a balance of S/. 35.8 billion and registered a growth rate of 11.0 percent in the last 12 months.

Credit to the private sector and liquidity at September 15

In the last four weeks (at September 15), total credit to the private sector increased 0.8 percent (S/. 1.71 billion). By currencies, credit in soles grew 2.0 percent (S/. 2.50 billion), while credit in dollars decreased by 0.9 percent (negative flow of US$ 283 million). As a result of this, credit to the private sector registered an annual growth rate of 13.2 percent.

In the same period, total liquidity in the private sector grew 0.1 percent (S/. 270 million), as a result of which liquidity in the private sector accumulated a growth rate of 6.4 percent in the last twelve months. By currencies, liquidity in soles grew 0.6 percent (S/. 802 million), while liquidity in dollars decreased by 0.8 percent (negative flow of US$ 190 million).

Trade Balance – August 2014

In August the trade balance recorded a deficit of US$ 311 million and accumulated a deficit of US$ 2.65 billion in the first eight months of the year.

Exports in August amounted to US$ 3.99 billion. Exports decline by US$ 875 million relative to August 2013 is explained by lower exports of traditional products, including fishmeal (US$ 158 million), copper (US$ 121 million), gold (US$ 348 million), and crude oil and derivatives (US$ 113 million). This was in part offset by higher sales of non-traditional products, particularly agricultural products and metal mechanic items (machinery and civil engineering equipment).

It should be pointed out that the data on exports in July was updated (up US$ 186 million) and that the decline of exports would reflect in part a statistical effect associated with the fact that exports registered a record figure of US$ 4.14 billion in August 2013.

In the same period, imports amounted to US$ 3.58 billion. The decline observed in imports compared to August 2013 (US$ 371 million) reflects the lower purchases of inputs (US$ 172 million) and capital goods (US$ 157 million).

The terms of trade declined 0.7 percent relative to August 2013 due to the lower prices of exports of gold and copper, offset in part by the lower prices of imports of oil and derivatives.

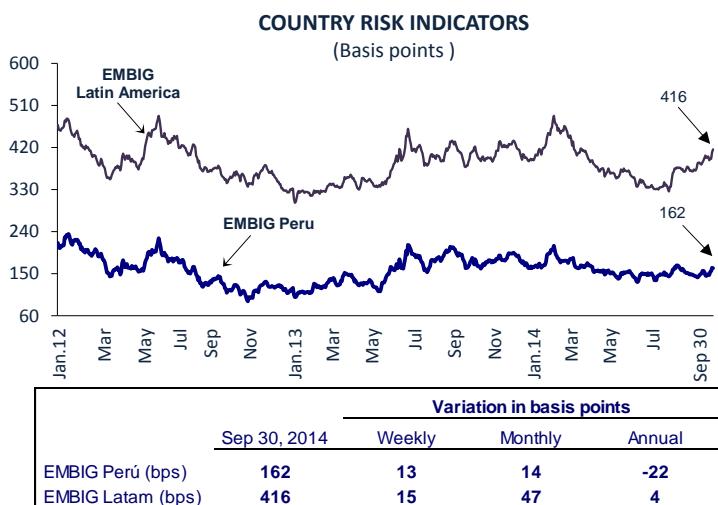

International Markets

Country risk at 162 basis points

On September 30, the EMBIG Peru indicator recorded 162 bps and the EMBIG LatAm recorded 416 basis points.

In September, the average country risk, measured by the EMBIG Peru spread, fell from 157 bps in August to 150 bps.

In the month, the LatAm spread rose 17 bps to 390 bps, in a context marked by geopolitical events in the Middle East, sanctions imposed by the European Union to Russia, and signals of a slowdown in China.

Price of gold at US$ 1,216.5 per troy ounce

On September 30, the price of gold registered US$ 1,216.5 per troy ounce.

The average price of gold in September was US$ 1,238.8 per troy ounce, 4.3 percent lower than in August.

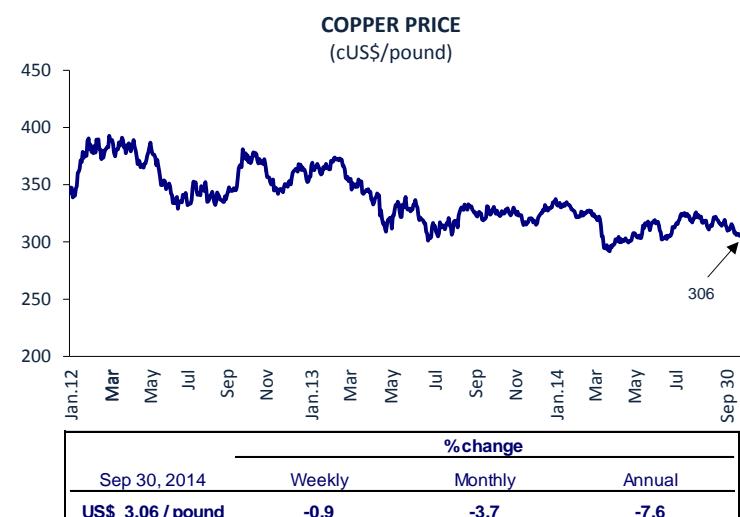

The decline in the price of gold was associated with the strengthening of the dollar against the euro and with speculations that the Federal Reserve will start implementing a cycle of interest rate cuts earlier than expected.

The price of copper on September 30 was US$ 3.06 per pound.

The average price of copper during September was US$ 3.12 per pound, down 1.9 percent compared to August.

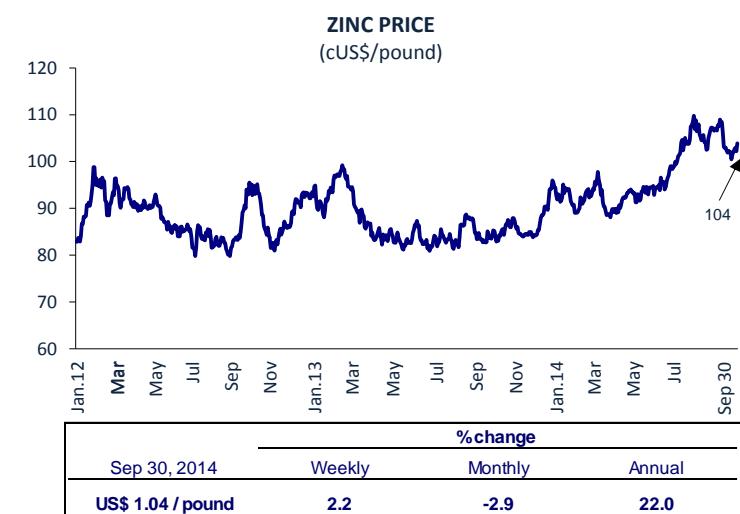

The decline in the price of copper is explained by the rise of inventories in the major global exchange markets, by China's greater production of refined copper, and by this country's lower demand for this metal.

On September 30, the price of zinc registered US$ 1.04 per pound.

The average price of zinc in September was US$ 1.04 (1.6 percent lower than in the previous month).

This price drop was influenced by fears of a lower demand, particularly as a result of market uncertainty about growth in Europe and China.

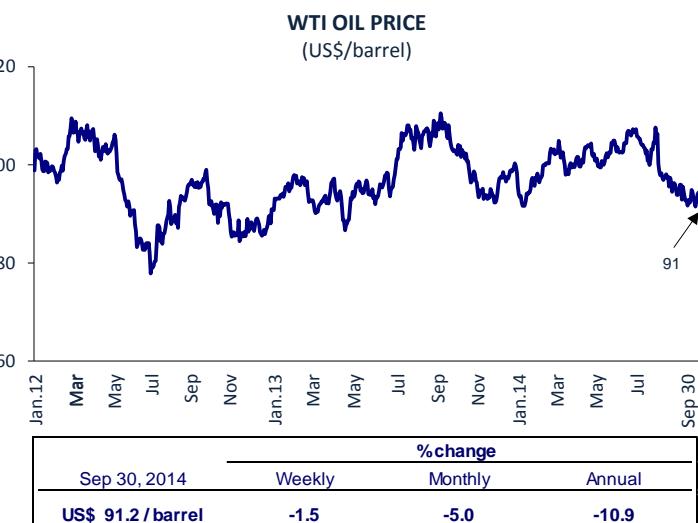

resumen informativo

The price of WTI oil on September 30 was US$ 91.2 per barrel.

In September, WTI oil recorded an average price of US$ 93.3, down 3.1 percent compared to August.

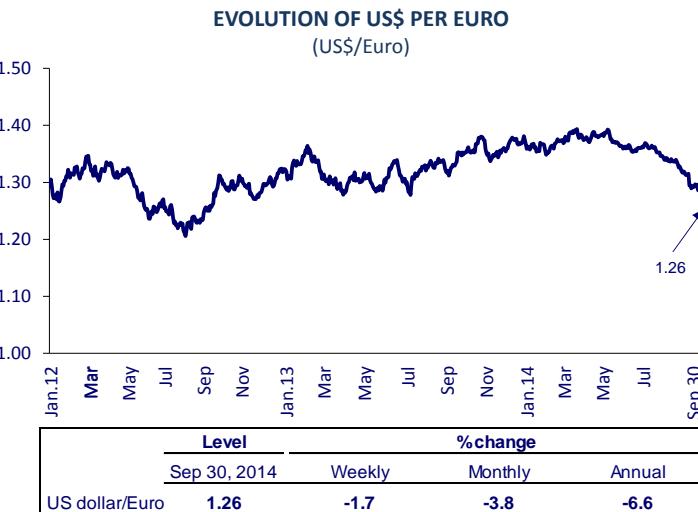

The price of oil fell as a result of lower demand for crude after the beginning of the maintenance period in US refineries. The excess of oil reserves in this country after the unexpected increase in U.S. crude inventories contributed to this price fall as well.

Dollar-euro exchange rate: US$ 1.26 per euro

On September 30, the exchange rate was US$ 1.26 per euro.

In September, the dollar appreciated 3.1 percent on average against the euro amid expectations that the European Central Bank (ECB) will announce greater monetary stimulus and that the Federal Reserve will start adjusting its interest rates earlier than expected.

Yield on 10-year US Treasuries at 2.49 percent

On September 30, the 3-month Libor recorded 0.24 percent and the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bonds recorded 2.49 percent.

In September, the 3-month Libor showed a rate of 0.23 percent, while the yield on the 10-year US Treasury bonds was 2.52 percent –11 bps higher than in August— amid expectations that the Federal Reserve will raise its interest rates earlier than foreseen.

Lima Stock Exchange

In September, the General Index of the Lima Stock Exchange (LSE) fell 4.6 percent and the Selective Index fell 5.7 percent.

The decline in the indices of the LSE was influenced by the drop of mining shares, in line with the fall registered in the international prices of metals and investors' caution regarding China's economic health.

Year-to-date (at September 30), the General Index has grown 3.0 percent, while the Selective Index has declined 2.4 percent.
